

Driver's License Mobile Scan Technology

A smatter, better, faster way to capture point of sale customer data.

INFINITY EDGE can capture data using its Driver's License scan technology. By simply scanning the back of the customers Driver's License, you can accurately capture their name, address, city, and date of birth.

INFINITY EDGE mobile scanning technology is highly accurate. Whether you're verifying a customer's identity or entering data of a new customer, a simple driver's license scan can tell you all you need to know.

Driver's License scanning through the INFINITY EDGE outperforms human data entry in terms of accuracy. Human error and distraction can lead to typing mistakes that can slow you're your originations workflow process. Corrupt data can cost your business money in the form of resubmissions, and longer processing times.

The INFINITY EDGE Mobile Scanning offers:

- Increased data entry accuracy
- Increased data capture speed
- Increased application submissions
- Increased efficiency of credit pulls
- Decreased resubmission rates based on bad data
- Ability to attach Driver's License, as part of the submission process

Contact iguerrieri@constellationfs.com or visit Constellationfs.com for more information.

